

WellMed garners top billing in San Antonio's Reader's Choice Awards

The results are in and it's official – WellMed was voted second best Primary Care Practice and third best Medical Group Practice in the San Antonio Express-News Reader's Choice Awards.

From an initial field many of the primary care medical providers in San Antonio, WellMed was selected as a finalist in both the Primary Care Practice and Medical Group Practice categories.

Thanks to every employee who voted, and thank you for the work you do every day to support our vision of changing the face of health care for the nation. You make WellMed not only the best place for our patients to receive care, but also the best place to work.

Congratulations to all!
